We retain the data until the request has been handled or the negotiations have ended; thereafter, only the necessary data based on our legitimate interest in the protection of legal claims for the duration of the relevant limitation periods and any dispute. Providing the data is not a statutory obligation; without the necessary data we cannot handle the request.

Cookies: without your consent, we use only technologies that are necessary for the transmission of communications or for a service you have expressly requested. We use analytics cookies for measuring and evaluating website traffic and marketing cookies for displaying and evaluating advertising only with your prior consent. Consent is also the legal basis for the related processing of personal data. You can refuse these cookies and change or withdraw your consent at any time, just as easily, in the Cookie Declaration on the website. You can find the specific purposes, providers, cookie lifetimes and retention of related data in the Cookie Declaration under the Details section.

Transfers of Data Outside the EU/EEA

Some providers of analytics and marketing tools may transfer personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area. Such a transfer takes place only based on a European Commission decision on an adequate level of protection, or subject to safeguards under Article 46 of the GDPR, in particular the European Commission's standard contractual clauses.

Automated Decision-Making and Profiling

We do not use your personal data for automated individual decision-making that would produce legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affect you (Article 22 GDPR). Any use of cookie data for measuring website traffic and displaying advertising takes place only based on your consent, which you can change or withdraw at any time.

Your Rights

Under the conditions set out in the GDPR, you have the right of access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing and data portability. You can exercise your rights by sending a request to GDPR.MTCR@aqgroup.com. We will respond to each request no later than 1 month from its receipt, or we will inform you within that period of a justified extension. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before its withdrawal. You may lodge a complaint with the Office for Personal Data Protection (Úřad pro ochranu osobních údajů).

Right to Object

You may object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to processing based on legitimate interest. You may object at any time to processing for direct marketing purposes; we will then no longer process the data for that purpose.
