AQ Elteknik AB acquires Anton Johanssons Rostfria Verkstads AB

AQ Elteknik AB has on June 30, 2015, signed an agreement with Mats Flood Produktion AB to buy 100 % of the shares of Anton Johanssons Rostfria Verkstads AB. The purchase price is SEK 5.8 million and the transaction will be made as a cash transaction.

The takeover will take place on July 1, 2015.

Anton Johanssons Rostfria Verkstads AB manufactures components in stainless steel to customers with special and unique requirements, e.g. to the laboratory and medical device industry. The company has a turnover of approximately SEK 30 million and employs 24 people.

"Anton Johanssons Rostfria Verkstads AB manufactures components in stainless steel and it's an excellent complement to AQ Elteknik's business. We have some customers in common and together we have the opportunity to offer our customers complete units with both mechanics and electronics" says Tobias Hammar, Managing Director of AQ Elteknik.
